History of The Order of St John

The origins of the Order of St John can be traced to an 11th century hospital - the Hospital of St John in Jerusalem. In 1113, the people who administered this hospital were formed into a religious Order. Soon after, they took on military duties and became known as Knights Hospitallers.

That Order, which still exists today, is now commonly known as the Order of Malta. It recruited members and owned property throughout Western Europe. The Order’s principal property in Scotland was at Torphichen in West Lothian. Being Roman Catholic, the medieval Order ceased to function in England from April 1540, and in Scotland from 1565 when the Reformation took place in the reign of Mary Queen of Scots.

In the first half of the 19th century, a group of people set out to revive the Order of Malta in the United Kingdom, but ultimately formed themselves into a separate organisation which they called the 'Order of St John', which had no official recognition. In 1877, they founded the St John Ambulance Association, whose role was to provide training in first aid and similar activities. Ten years later, the St John Ambulance Brigade was created, as a uniformed body of trained volunteers to provide first aid cover to the public.

In 1882, as a further means of providing to those in need and recognising its origins, the Order opened a hospital in Jerusalem. This was to treat eye disease, prevalent in the Middle East.

In 1888, Queen Victoria made the Order a Royal Order of Chivalry, with the monarch as its Sovereign Head. Since then, the Grand Prior has always been a member of the Royal Family.

Today, the Order of St John functions throughout the United Kingdom, in many other Commonwealth countries, in the United States of America, and at the hospital in Jerusalem.

The Order in Scotland

In its early years, the Order provided training in first aid and related subjects in Scotland, as in other parts of the United Kingdom. However, the Scottish-based St Andrew’s Ambulance Association was formed later and began similar activities, both in Scotland and in England.

In 1908, an agreement was reached that St Andrews would cease first aid training south of the border, and St John north of it. In the 1940s, some of its members felt that there was scope for the Order to undertake a variety of public services in Scotland, so in 1947, the Scottish Priory of the Order was established.

Over the years, the Priory of Scotland of the Order of St John responded to changes to some of these needs brought about by developments such as the creation and evolution of the National Health Service. This ranged from the building and managing of care homes, to the provision of vehicles to other charitable organisations.

In more recent times, under the banner St John Scotland, members of the Order alongside other volunteers continue to help communities in need through charitable works. Patient Transport services have been established to help those undergoing treatment for cancer or dialysis get to regular hospital appointments without having to rely on public transport.

St John Scotland is also helping the nation be more resilient in the face of sudden cardiac arrest, by supporting local communities to install Public Access Defibrillators, and offering free CPR training to people of all ages. We also continue to support Scottish Mountain Rescue teams and a Mountain Safety initiative in partnership with Mountaineering Scotland.

As well as work at home, St John Scotland has long supported the St John Eye of Jerusalem Eye Hospital Group, as well as services run by colleagues in St John Malawi.

The Order of St John Today

Membership of the Order (as an Order of Chivalry) is conferred in recognition of work done in furthering its objects. Recommendations for admission to, or promotion in, the Order may be made by the chairs of the Area committees and by Grade I or II members.

Such recommendations are subject to scrutiny by the Priory Honours and Awards Committee, and are then submitted to Her Majesty the Queen for approval. New and promoted members are invested with their insignia at the Festival of St John, held annually in Scotland on or around the 24th of June (St John Baptist Day).

The Roll of Members of the Order in the Priory of Scotland is maintained in the Chancery. A member may request a copy of his or her recorded particulars at any time.

Grades of the Order

Under its Sovereign Head, Her Majesty The Queen, the Order has five grades:

I Bailiff & Dame Grand Cross, GCStJ
II Knight & Dame (of Grace or of Justice), KStJ & DStJ
III Commander, CStJ
IV Officer, OStJ
V Member, MStJ

Clerical grades (e.g. CHStJ) were withdrawn from use, however those holding them may wish to continue to use them.

Foundation Dues and Oblations

To carry out its charitable works as St John Scotland, the Priory depends to a great extent on contributions from its members. Order members are relied upon for two set contributions: Foundation Dues, payable on admission to, and promotion within the Order; and Annual Oblations, payable annually on a scale related to grade within the Order.

The current Foundation Dues and Annual Oblation rates are:

Initials and Insignia

The preceding abbreviations may be used in connection with the work of the Order and in biographical references. The abbreviations, when used as post-nominal letters, come after those of the other British Orders and decorations for distinguished service or gallantry, e.g. Donald MacDonald MBE MC KStJ.

Order insignia take the same precedence. Notes on the wearing of insignia are available on request from the Chancery. Members may also wish to note that any insignia no longer required, e.g. through promotion, may be sent to the Chancery where it can be used to the benefit of the Priory.
St John’s House, Edinburgh

The Chancery, or headquarters, of the Priory of Scotland is located at St John’s House, 21 St John Street, Edinburgh. This early eighteenth-century house lies off the Royal Mile a little below the site of St John’s Cross in the Canongate. It was originally built for the Wemyss family and was generously gifted to the Order in 1971 by the late James Watt KStJ.

Chapter Room

On the first floor of St John’s House is the Chapter Room, which was relocated to its present location from the original Chancery building in Woodlands Terrace, Glasgow, when St John’s House was adopted as the Chancery in 1971.

The Chapter Room includes a Prior’s chair and table, and tables for the Chancellor and Preceptor of Torphichen. Stall plates depict the arms of deceased Knights and Dames of Justice.

Recent work undertaken by the Director of Ceremonies to improve the Chapter Room has seen the repositioning of the stall plates, previously displayed either side of the chairs of the Chancellor and the Preceptor, above the stall seats in chronological order of appointment as Knight or Dame of Justice. Stall plates of the most recent knights were painted by the Priory Limner. Mounted across three of the four walls, this displays a magnificent collection of heraldry of knights and dames of the Order in Scotland. Over the coming years, the collection will increase as further knights and dames are appointed.

Library

The library of St John Scotland is contained within St John’s House. It has a fascinating collection of books, documents, photographs and objects relating to the Order from its origins to the present day. Visitors to the library are welcome, and are requested to make arrangements with the Librarian, Duncan McAra, by email at duncanmcara@mac.com

Torphichen Preceptory

The first property in Scotland of the pre-Reformation Order was established at Torphichen in West Lothian. Acquired during the reign of David I, King of Scots (1124-1153), it became, and remained until the 16th century, the Order’s administrative centre in Scotland. It was also a hospital and a place of worship.

The tower and transepts of the Preceptory building remain and the property is under the stewardship of Historic Environment Scotland.

With the help of volunteers organised by St John Scotland’s West Lothian committee, the Preceptory is open to the public over weekends and bank holidays from 1st April to 30th September, between 1pm and 5pm. New volunteers are welcome and should contact volunteer@stjohnscotland.org.uk for more information.

The stunning Torphichen Preceptory is also available for use as a wedding venue, with fees of only £500, which go directly to St John Scotland’s charity work. To find out more, please contact us on info@stjohnscotland.org.uk.
Governance of the Order

The Order of St John is a separate body from its Priories and other establishments, and is registered with the Charity Commission of England and Wales. The Trustees are the Great Officers of the Order, the Priors of each Priory or their appointed representative, and the Order Hospitaller. Together, they form the Grand Council.

Grand Council meets once per year, and deals with matters beyond the responsibility of any one particular establishment, including Order-wide policy and strategy. The Great Officers and the Grand Council are supported by the Secretary-General, who heads a small secretariat in London. Each of the Priories, Commanderies and St John Associations has its own constitution. They are subject to the Charter, Statutes and Regulations of the Order, but within that they have a wide degree of autonomy.

In Grateful Memory

Amongst others lost to the Order over the past year were the following Grade II members.

Elisabeth Margaret Ross Forrest DStJ
Born: 13 May 1922
Died: 22 December 2017

Elisabeth Margaret Forrest was born Edinburgh and went to Rothesay House School, finishing her education at a boarding school, Chatelard, in Switzerland before training to be a radiographer at The Royal Infirmary in Edinburgh. She spent the war years working at hospitals in Scunthorpe before returning to Edinburgh for a short time.

In June 1948 she married John (Jack) Addie Forrest OStJ and moved to Glasgow, where she lived until the mid 1970s and was an active member of the Glasgow committee of St John. Through her 25 years service, she served as Convenor of the Ladies of the Association Committee, and as Vice-Chairperson of the Langside Residential Home Committee. She continued to serve as a member of the Executive Committee after her retirement from these roles in 1987.

Often praised for her skill and devotion, Elisabeth was fondly remembered for making jars of homemade marmalade for the residents at the original residential home at Mansionhouse Road, Glasgow, as well home baking and cakes for special birthdays for the elderly residents. She was involved with the planning of the new residence at 23 Mansionhouse Road, where her expertise came to the fore in the design of the kitchen layout, complaining that it had been designed by a man, who had never had to work in one!

A dedicated fundraiser, Elisabeth was involved in many events including coffee mornings and evening concerts, as well as running a catering stall in the early days of the Glasgow Marathon in the 1980s, to provide hamburgers for the runners and spectators as a fundraiser for the then Order of St John Association in Glasgow.

Elisabeth and Jack relocated to Lochgoilhead in Argyllshire until 2006, when they moved to Inchmarlo Estate, near Banchory, Aberdeenshire until her death in December 2017, aged 95.

Henry Tilling KStJ MA FSAScot
Born: 24 January 1924
Died: 23 January 2019

Born in Dorset, Henry Tilling was involved throughout his long life in the Order of St John, joining St John Ambulance Brigade as a 15-year-old in 1938.
Mr Tilling’s passage through Oxford University was interrupted by the Second World War. Taken prisoner at the Rhine Bridge in the disaster that followed Operation Market Garden, the young Captain celebrated his 21st birthday as a PoW in Oflag VIIB in Bavaria.

He became a divisional officer of St John Ambulance in London before a professional promotion in 1977 – to chairman of the Scottish Post Office Board – saw him move north, where he retained his connection to the Order.

Invested as a Member of the Order of St John in Scotland in 1978, he eventually rose to the rank of Knight in 1996. With his friend and fellow Knight, Charles Burnett, he co-authored a major account of the Order in Scotland across 120 years from 1879.

A career civil servant, Henry Tilling had followed his father into the GPO, before becoming private secretary to the Postmaster General, then Tony Benn. In his role as chairman of the Scottish postal Board, Mr Tilling also sat on CBI Scotland Council.

With a lifelong interest in heraldry, Henry was also a long-standing member and office-bearer of the Heraldry Society of Scotland.

Mr Tilling died a day short of his 95th birthday.

David Paton died a day short of his 95th birthday.

David Paton of Grandhome OBE KStJ DL FRICS DBA FSAScot

Born: 5 March 1935
Died: 4 February 2019

David Paton was born the son of a half-Greek father, and a mother who had been a prison visitor and founder of the family planning clinic in Aberdeen. He was dedicated to public life, and the legacy of his guidance and leadership – in business, arts, charities and the built environment – remains strong in the North-East.

Educated at Aberdeen Grammar School, Gordonstoun and Oxford, he began his working life on a tobacco farm in what was then Southern Rhodesia (now Zimbabwe). He later became holder of an honorary doctorate in business administration from Robert Gordon University, laird and landowner.

Invested as a Member of the Order of St John in 1992, he was promoted through the grades thanks to his tireless local service, reaching Knight in 2007.

Among his professional achievements were a quarter of a century as board member and chairman of Aberdeen Harbour; a period which saw him steer the port into a new oil age. As chairman of the North East Scotland Preservation Trust, he led the saving of a historic tollhouse near Turriff, while his long-sighted support to reopen Aberdeen’s Tivoli Theatre – at the time thought beyond saving – now sees that theatre flourishing.

After suffering a long illness, David Paton died at home in February 2019, aged 83.
