History of The Order of St John

The origins of the Order of St John can be traced to an 11th century hospital - the Hospital of St John in Jerusalem. In 1113, the people who administered this hospital were formed into a religious Order. Soon after, they took on military duties and became known as Knights Hospitallers.

That Order, which still exists today, is now commonly known as the Order of Malta. It recruited members and owned property throughout Western Europe. The Order's principal property in Scotland was at Torphichen in West Lothian. Being Roman Catholic, the medieval Order ceased to function in England from April 1540, and in Scotland from 1565 when the Reformation took place in the reign of Mary Queen of Scots.

In the first half of the 19th century, a group of people set out to revive the Order of Malta in the United Kingdom, but ultimately formed themselves into a separate organisation which they called the 'Order of St John', which had no official recognition. In 1877, they founded the St John Ambulance Association, whose role was to provide training in first aid and similar activities. Ten years later, the St John Ambulance Brigade was created, as a uniformed body of trained volunteers to provide first aid cover to the public.

In 1882, as a further means of providing to those in need and recognising its origins, the Order opened a hospital in Jerusalem. This was to treat eye disease, prevalent in the Middle East.

In 1888, Queen Victoria made the Order a Royal Order of Chivalry, with the monarch as its Sovereign Head. Since then, the Grand Prior has always been a member of the Royal Family.

Today, the Order of St John functions throughout the United Kingdom, in many other Commonwealth countries, in the United States of America, and at the hospital in Jerusalem.

The Order in Scotland

In its early years, the Order provided training in first aid and related subjects in Scotland, as in other parts of the United Kingdom. However, the Scottish-based St Andrew's Ambulance Association was formed later and began similar activities, both in Scotland and in England.

In 1908, an agreement was reached that St Andrews would cease first aid training south of the border, and St John north of it. In the 1940s, some of its members felt that there was scope for the Order to undertake a variety of public services in Scotland, so in 1947, the Scottish Priory of the Order was established.

Over the years, the Priory of Scotland of the Order of St John responded to changes to some of these needs brought about by developments such as the creation and evolution of the National Health Service. This ranged from the building and managing of care homes, to the provision of vehicles to other charitable organisations.

In more recent times, under the banner St John Scotland, members of the Order alongside other volunteers continue to help communities in need through charitable works. Patient Transport services help those undergoing treatment for cancer or dialysis get to regular hospital appointments. St John Scotland is working to improve survival rate from cardiac arrest, by supporting communities to install Public Access Defibrillators, and offering free CPR training, while we also support a team of Community First Responders in Angus.

As well as work at home, St John Scotland has long supported the St John of Jerusalem Eye Hospital Group, as well as services run by our sister organisation, St John Malawi.

The Order of St John Today

Membership of the Order (as an Order of Chivalry) is conferred in recognition of work done in furthering its objects. Recommendations for admission to, or promotion in, the Order may be made by the chairs of the Area committees and by Grade I or II members.

Such recommendations are subject to scrutiny by the Priory Honours and Awards Committee, and are then submitted to Her Majesty the Queen for approval. New and promoted members are invested with their insignia at the Festival of St John, held annually in Scotland on or around the 24th of June (St John Baptist Day).

The Roll of Members of the Order in the Priory of Scotland is maintained in the headquarters. A member may request a copy of his or her recorded particulars at any time.

Grades of the Order

Under its Sovereign Head, Her Majesty The Queen, the Order has five grades:

- I Bailiff & Dame Grand Cross, GCStJ
- II Knight & Dame (of Justice or of Grace), KStJ & DStJ
- III Commander, CStJ
- IV Officer, OStJ
- V Member, MStJ
- Clerical grades (eg. CHStJ) were withdrawn from use, however those holding them may wish to continue to use them

Foundation Dues and Oblations

Foundation Dues are payable upon admission to, or promotion in the Order and reflect the cost of insignia.

Members undertake to make an Annual Oblation to the Priory of Scotland in order to allow the Priory to maintain membership, organise the annual Festival, support the work of the Order worldwide as well as the charitable work of St John Scotland. The Priory Chapter sets minimum rates of oblations below but it is hoped that members will be pleased to make a greater contribution if their circumstances allow.

The current Foundation Dues and Annual Oblation rates are:

Grade	Foundation Dues (£)	Annual Oblations (£)
I Bailiff/Dame Grand Cross GCStJ	660	125
II Knight/Dame of Justice KStJ & DStJ	350	95
II Knight/Dame of Grace KStJ & DStJ	340	95
III Commander CStJ	220	65
IV Officer OStJ	110	50
V Member MStJ	80	40

Postnominal letters

The preceding abbreviations may be used in connection with the work of the Order and in biographical references. The abbreviations, when used as post-nominal letters, come after those of the other British Orders and decorations for distinguished service or gallantry, eg. Donald MacDonald MBE MC KStJ.

Medals and Insignia

Upon admission into the Order of St John, members are presented with insignia, each level and office being depicted by different emblems and robes for wear at ceremonial occasions. Notes on the wearing of insignia are available on request from headquarters.

Order of St John Service Medal

All those who make a significant contribution to the charitable works of the Order of St John (whether or not they are a member) is entitled to apply for the Order's Service Medal.

The service medal is bestowed when an individual has completed at least 60 hours' service each year for ten years. Bars are added to the service medal to denote further years' service. An ultra-long service medal recognises those who have contributed 50 years' service. Bars may be added to this medal up to 70 years' service.

Order of St John Award for Organ Donation

The Order of St John Award for Organ Donation is a UK-wide initiative in partnership with NHS Blood and Transplant (NHSBT).

Since 2013, the awards have been presented to the families of those who have lost loved ones within the past year, but whose decision to donate their organs helped saved the lives of others.

In Scotland, the awards are presented at a ceremony in Edinburgh during Organ Donation Week each year. The award itself is inscribed with the words "Add Life, Give Hope".

St John House, Edinburgh

The Chancery, or headquarters, of the Priory of Scotland is located at St John House, 21 St John Street, Edinburgh. This early eighteenth-century house lies off the Royal Mile a little below the site of St John's Cross in the Canongate. It was originally built for the Wemyss family and was generously gifted to the Order in 1971 by the late James Watt KStJ.

Chapter Room

On the first floor of St John House is the Chapter Room, which was relocated to its present location from the original Chancery building in Woodlands Terrace, Glasgow, when St John House was adopted as the Chancery in 1971.

The Chapter Room includes a Prior's chair and table, and chairs for the Chancellor and Preceptor of Torphichen. Stall plates depict the arms of living and deceased Knights and Dames of Justice. Mounted across three of the four walls, this displays a magnificent collection of heraldry of knights and dames of the Order in Scotland. Over the coming years, the collection will increase as further knights and dames are appointed.

In 2020, a book was published which documents the current Stall Plates on display in the Chapter Room. "Stall Plates of the Knights and Dames of the Priory of Scotland of the Order of St John", written by James Alexander Bingham KStJ, is available for sale priced £9.95 online at bit.ly/stallplates or by contacting the staff team (details on the back page).

Library

The library of the Priory of Scotland is contained within St John House. It has a fascinating collection of books, documents, photographs and objects relating to the Order from its origins to the present day. Visitors to the library are welcome, and are requested to make arrangements with the Librarian, Duncan McAra, by email at info@stjohnscotland.org.uk

Torphichen Preceptory

The first property in Scotland of the pre-Reformation Order was established at Torphichen in West Lothian. Acquired during the reign of David I, King of Scots (1124-1153), it became, and remained until the 16th century, the Order's administrative centre in Scotland. It was also a hospital and a place of worship.

The tower and transepts of the Preceptory building remain and the property is under the stewardship of Historic Environment Scotland.

With the help of volunteers organised by St John Scotland's West Lothian committee, the Preceptory is open to the public over weekends and bank holidays from 1st April to 30th September, between 1pm and 5pm. New volunteers are welcome and should contact volunteer@stjohnscotland.org.uk for more information.

The stunning Torphichen Preceptory is also available for use as a wedding venue, with fees of only £500, which go directly to St John Scotland's charity work. To find out more, please contact us on info@stjohnscotland.org.uk.

Governance of the Order

The Order of St John is a separate body from its Priors and other establishments, and is registered with the Charity Commission of England and Wales. The Trustees are the Great Officers of the Order, the Priors of each Priory or their appointed representative, and the Order Hospitaller. Together, they form the Grand Council.

Grand Council meets once per year, and deals with matters beyond the responsibility of any one particular establishment, including Order-wide policy and strategy. The Great Officers and the Grand Council are supported by the Secretary-General, who heads a small secretariat in London. Each of the Priors, Commanderies and St John Associations has its own constitution. They are subject to the Charter, Statutes and Regulations of the Order, but within that they have a wide degree of autonomy.

In Grateful Memory

Amongst those lost to the Order over the past year were the following Grade I & II members.

Major General Mark Jeremy Strudwick CBE KStJ 19 April 1945 - 26 September 2021

Born in Kent to book publisher and artist Ronald Strudwick and his wife Mary, Mark Strudwick was educated at St Edmund's School, Canterbury before training at the Royal Military Academy, Sandhurst.

Commissioned into the Royal Scots in 1966, he served in the UK, with the British Army of the Rhine, in Cyprus, Canada, India and Northern Ireland, where he was twice mentioned in despatches.

Among subsequent posts, he was deputy military secretary at the Ministry of Defence and aide de camp to HM The Queen, 1996-97, before becoming General Officer Commanding, Army in Scotland and, in tandem, Governor of Edinburgh Castle, 1997-2000.

After retiring from the Army, Mark went on to become Chief Executive of the Prince's Scottish Youth Business Trust, helping young people find their way in business, a role he enjoyed for 12 years.

It was from this role that he joined St John Scotland, succeeding Sir Malcolm Ross as Prior of the Order in Scotland, and chair of the Board of Trustees, in 2015.

During his six year tenure, which ended shortly before he passed away in 2021, Mark oversaw significant changes at the organisation, including the incorporation as a limited company in 2017, and strategic changes that refocused its efforts on building charitable services delivered by St John Scotland volunteers. His vision for the organisation and friendly, encouraging manner earned him wide respect from Members and volunteers.

After the death of his first wife, Jan, he married Sue Garrett-Cox in 2015. Throughout his time as Prior, Sue was a constant presence by his side and enjoyed many engagements with him, including several trips to Jerusalem and Malawi.

Mark was a passionate supporter of Torphichen Preceptory, at which he often volunteered to lead tours of visitors. Shortly before his death, he and Sue published an updated version of the Preceptory visitor book, bringing to life this ancient site and its importance to St John.

He is survived by Sue, his children Piers and Sara, step-children Jeremy, Robin and Sacha, four grandchildren and 11 step-grandchildren.

Colonel Neil Muir Sharp MBE KStJ TD CA
18 May 1934 - 31 January 2022

Neil Muir Sharp was born in 1934 in Broughty Ferry to John Stuart Cadenhead Sharp, OBE a deputy lieutenant of Angus, and his wife Dorothy Muir.

He was educated first at Dundee High School then preparatory school Cargilfield in Edinburgh before being evacuated with his school during the war to Lawyers, Perthshire. Neil later completed his education at Glenalmond College, Perthshire.

He undertook National Service as a gunner in the Royal Artillery, serving in Hong Kong after training in Aldershot then completing his service with spells in the UK and Germany.

After his service he joined the Territorial Army, rose to become a colonel and saw service in Northern Ireland.

Neil succeeded George Mathieson as commanding officer of the Royal Artillery Battery in Arbroath and served as a deputy chairman of the Royal Artillery in Scotland. He was at one time the most senior Royal Artillery colonel in Scotland and was awarded the MBE in 1975 for services to the TA.

Neil trained as a chartered accountant with Thomson Murdoch in Dundee and was then offered a partnership shortly after qualifying. The firm became part of the larger accountancy firm Arthur Young which in turn became Ernst & Young and Neil rose to become managing partner.

When Neil retired from the TA he was invited to become a member of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St Andrews where he served on a house committee. He was a frequent player at St Andrews and also played at Turnberry where he achieved a hole in one.

In 1982 he was also invited to join the Angus & Dundee committee of the Order of St John and eventually rose through the ranks to first take the post of Director Ceremonies in 1996, before becoming Receiver General, a post he held from 2002 to 2010.

Neil's first marriage to Jean took place in 1960 and the couple had two daughters, Sarah and Heather. In 1974 he married Muriel and had a daughter, Sally.

Donald Speirs Fullarton MBE KStJ FSAScot
5 July 1944 - 29 March 2022

Born Leslie Maxwell in Glasgow, Donald was adopted by John and Jill Fullarton at the age of two months. He was educated at the Edinburgh Academy.

He began his career in local news as a junior reporter with the Helensburgh and Gareloch Times before being 'poached' by its up-and-coming rival, the Helensburgh Advertiser, where he started working in August 1965.

He later edited the paper, before spending 30 years at the helm of a host of titles in Dunbartonshire, Renfrewshire, and Ayrshire.

After he left the newspaper industry full-time in the late 1990s he taught news writing to hundreds of journalism students at Strathclyde University and Glasgow Caledonian University.

He was one of the founders of Helensburgh Rugby Club in 1963 and was a director of the Helensburgh Heritage Trust and secretary and past president of Helensburgh Rotary Club.

Donald received an MBE in 2006 for his services to journalism and to the community in Helensburgh.

He retained his links with the Helensburgh Advertiser through regular contributions on behalf of many local groups – but most notably through his weekly Eye on Milling column, written under the pen name of Leslie Maxwell (his birth name), which chronicled the fascinating past and present of many aspects of life across Helensburgh and Lomond.

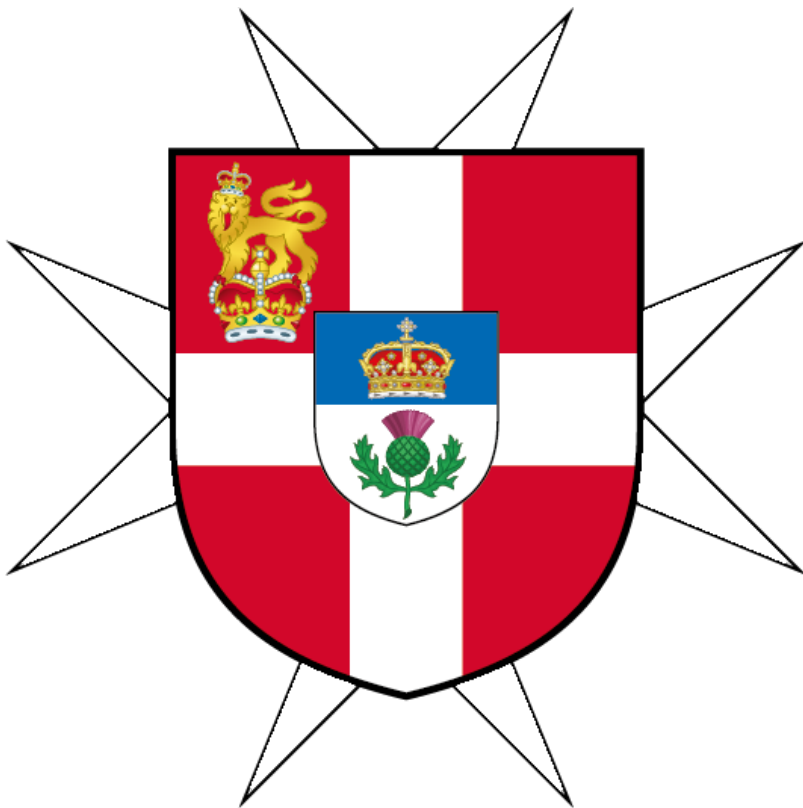

He also took photographs of Dumbarton FC's home and away matches for more than 50 years, and was the club's official photographer from 2008 onwards.

Donald joined the Helensburgh sub-committee of the Dunbartonshire St John Association in the 1980s. After the St John Associations and Order committees were amalgamated in 2006 he became Secretary of the Dunbartonshire committee, a role he maintained until his death. He was a member of Chapter and chaired the Priory Communications Committee until the appointment of a full time Communications Officer in 2017. He was made a Knight of the Order in 2005.

Donald is survived by wife Phyllis and children Campbell, Victoria and Claire, and by eight grandchildren.
